

Welcome to St. Luke's Episcopal Church and the fourth season of the Michaelsen Music & Arts Series. These programs are dedicated to the memory of the beloved Deacon Dorothy Michaelsen whose love for the arts inspired this series. As a sacramental community, we at St. Luke's believe that God invites humankind to participate in his creativity. Thus the creative energy, skill, and talent exhibited in these performances reveal not only the genius of the musicians, but also a glimpse of the divine here on earth. We hope that in taking advantage of this series, your soul will not only be stirred, but lifted heavenward.

In Christ,
The Rev'd Robert M. Odom

All Saints' Choir
 Lenten Choral Evensong
 March 27, 2011
 5:00 p.m., All Saints' Chapel

Evensong is the sung service of Evening Prayer that is a very long tradition in the English Church. Through music, we wish to draw all those who listen closer to God. Duane Roth leads the All Saints' Choir, accompanied by Jason Alden.

Dr. James Kibbie
 Organist
 April 3, 2011
 4:00 p.m., St. Luke's Church

James Kibbie is Professor of Organ at the University of Michigan. He also maintains a full schedule of concert, recording, and festival engagements throughout North America and Europe. He has been hailed as "a marvelous organist, a brilliant interpreter." A frequent jury member of international organ competitions, he has himself been awarded the Grand Prix d'Interprétation at the prestigious International Organ Competition of Chartres, France, and is also the only American to have won the International Organ Competition of the Prague Spring Festival in the former Czechoslovakia. He has performed the complete cycle of Bach organ works in a series of eighteen recitals and is in constant demand as a Bach recitalist and clinician. His recent recordings of the complete Bach works on historic baroque organs in Germany have been welcomed with enthusiastic critical and audience acclaim. The University of Michigan is offering Dr. Kibbie's recordings of all 270 Bach works as free internet downloads at www.blockmrecords.org/bach.

John Backes
 May 8, 2011
 4:00 p.m., All Saints' Chapel

John was first introduced to music by James Livengood of St. Mark's School in Dallas, touring Britain and France as head chorister with the St. Mark's choir. At the University of Pennsylvania, John studied under Jody Applebaum and Dr. Thomas Houser. In 2005, he studied German lieder at the American Institute of Musical Studies in Graz, Austria. Most recently he held the title role in the Chicago Civic Choir's performance of Elijah.
